HIS LIFE AT STAKE

William Ester on Trial for Murder.

DID HE STAB JACKSON?

Jury Sworn, Prosecution States Its Case and Scene of the Trouble Viewed.

The selection of a jury for the trial of William Ester, charged with the murder of Toyo Jackson, occupied the attention of Judge Stanley all of yesterday. At 11 o'clock the regular panel of jurors was exhausted, and a special list of fifty foreign jurors was prepared by Judge Stanley and Clerk Thompson in the usual manner and sent to Marshal Brown for service. A recess was taken until 1 o'clock, and the prisoner was removed to the station house for safe-keeping.

By consent of the opposing counsel, A. D. Larnach was excused, and a number of others were allowed to leave the jury box by Judge Stanley for cause. These were W. M. Cunningham, C. H. Clapp, George Angus, W. H. Smith, C. B. Gray, J. J. Egan, Jas. Torbert and Jas. McInerney. John Effinger was excused upon the request of Mr. Dole for the prosecution, and George R. Carter escaped service on the jury by a request from Chas. Creighton, who is defending the negro with Attorney Straus.

In the afternoon the same difficulty was met in attempting to fill the jury box with men satisfactory to both sides. Several were excused and the new panel was drawn upon. The talesmen from the new panel who were excused from duty upon the jury were: D. T. Bailey, John Clark, C. D. Chase, P. M. Lucas, J. J. Sullivan, F. J. Turner, W. W. Harris, J. F. Humburg, C. W. Zeigler, George Hawkins, T. V. King, E. H. F. Wolters, B. F. Beardmore, J. S. Douglas, J. H. Soper and W. C. Weedon. Excused by defendant: Theodore Wolff, H. Zerbe, C. R. Collins, W. O. Atwater, H. A. Taylor and A. N. Tripp. By consent: C. R. Dement.

The following jurors being satisfactory to the counsel, were sworn in to hear the case: I. Rubenstein, Thomas Krouse, C. J. Ludwigen, J. D. Tregloan, J. Schnack, E. Benner, F. S. Lyman, J. T. Copeland, William Savidge, H. J. Gallagher, H. G. Wooten and Fred Phillips.

Albert McGurn, Albert Mossman, Will Vida and R. Waipa, police officers, were sworn in by the Court to take charge of the jury.

The indictment against the defendant was read by the prosecution. Attorney Cathcart, assisting Mr. Dole in the prosecution of the case, then addressed the jury, making a preliminary statement of the facts which he said the prosecution would endeavor to prove by the testimony adduced upon the witness stand. He gave a minute story of the fatal affair from the time Jackson and Cockett were first accosted in the Pacific saloon at the corner of Nuuanu and King streets, until the mortal stab was given as the three men emerged from the narrow alleyway behind the saloon into King street.

He told how after receiving a rebuff from Jackson and Cockett, the negro Ester went out of the saloon, returning shortly afterward with something in his hand, which the prosecution will try to show was a knife, and which will be put in evidence.

Then followed a description of the chase after Ester from the saloon into the alley, where they became mixed up. Mr. Cathcart stated that the prosecution expects to show that the knife wound was given at that time, and that a running fight continued until all three were knocked down by Jackson, who suddenly whirled round and fell dead.

A map showing the locations of the three men at different times prior to the tragedy, in the saloon and out of it, was introduced by Mr. Cathcart, which he proceeded to unfold for the instruction of the jurors.

Mr. Straus objected to the showing of the map, on the ground that it was not the proper time for it. Mr. Dole stated that his impression was that Mr. Creighton, who is associated with Mr. Straus in the defense, would have no objection to its introduction if he were present. Mr. Straus then withdrew his objection and the map was displayed.

Mr. Dole requested that the jury be allowed to visit the scene of the murder and vicinity, so as to gain a clear idea of such points as would be brought out in the evidence. The Court granted the request and the jury were instructed to ask no questions of any one but the Court while on the premises, under the threat of a severe penalty. Carriages were provided and the inspection made. Upon their return the case was continued until this morning at the usual time.

A General Holiday.

Kamehameha Day, June 11, will be observed as a general holiday throughout Hawaii. The Government offices, the banks and most of the business houses will not open and pleasure will be the chief end of Islanders. Yesterday President Dole issued the usual order for the Government's observation of the festival.

Drink a little whiskey for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. The famous old Jesse Moore "AA" Whiskey is the purest and best. Sold by Lovejoy & Co., Honolulu.

Only the highest grade of RED RUBBER is used in the Stamps made by the HAWAIIAN GAZETTE CO.

M'MAHON WANTS TO RUN A FOOTRACE

Champion Half-Mile Sprinter of the Islands to Be Here Kamehameha Day.

P. Morris McMahon, the well known Hilo foot racer, has written to a friend in Honolulu saying that he will be here on June 9th, and expressing a wish to participate in a half-mile race for the championship of Honolulu.

Prince David, on being approached on the subject yesterday, promised to do his best to put the matter through. McMahon is an amateur with a high local reputation, and a hard man to beat over a distance of ground.

It is to be hoped that a race may be arranged, for a number of local amateurs would enter, among the possibilities being Arcia, A. J. Coats, Chris. Hott, A. M. Walcott, En Sang, Al Moore, H. M. Ayres and others.

The time for training is somewhat short, it is true, but the race is not a very difficult one and should furnish valuable lines on form in view of the Island championship races to be run in Hilo on July 4th.

Ascension Day.

Ascension Day to-morrow called also Holy Thursday, is one of the highest festivals of the Christian Church. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion tomorrow morning at St. Andrew's Cathedral at half past five o'clock.
